Commander Denis Poulain (drums in Kind Of Guru, Transmusicales 2021) summons his Rennes colleagues Joris Prigent (keyboards in Tago Mago, Transmusicales 2022) and Fabien Cariou (saxophone, in Güz II, Trans 2010) into his cockpit for an instrumental journey to the frontiers of jazz, rock and electro. Their flying cucumber is a whirring space shuttle whose trajectory takes in feverish swirls and cosmic contemplations.

The three (little) green men have invented a bizarre universe, the ideal soundtrack for a sci-fi Z series like Plan Nine From Outer Space (one of their references), which will leave no one in a vegetative state.
